YEARBOOK O

1949 SNATCH

SCARSDALE HIGH SCHOOL

SCARSDALE • NEW YORK

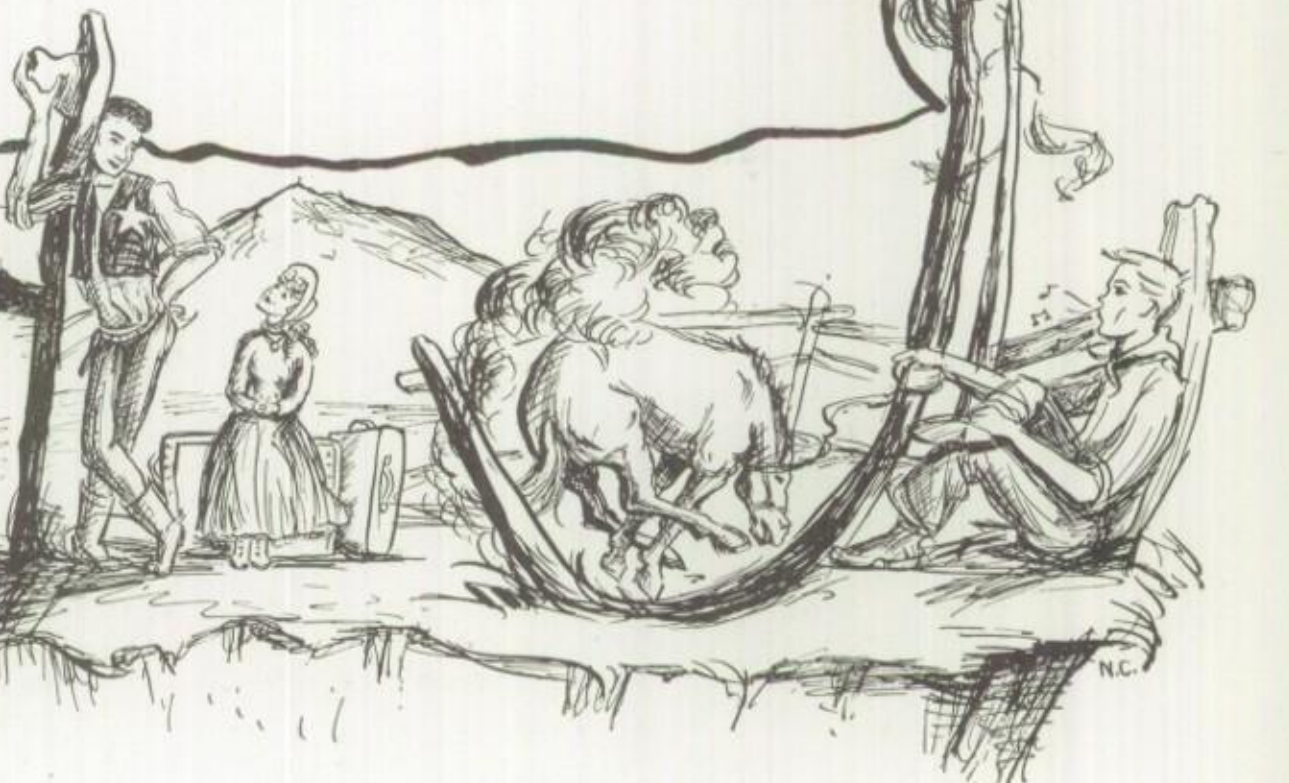

FOREWORD

AS we the '49ers started our long trip through the year, we were a little frightened when we thought of the hardships and perils to come. During the first part of the journey we had several victorious scrimmages with our rivals. Next came the hazardous crossing of Mid-Years River that marked the halfway point. Climbing the beautiful Spring Fever Mountains, we dreaded the inevitable battle that was to come when we started panning. Finally, when we had almost hit paydirt, the Regents Indians attacked us; but, after a four-day struggle, we decisively conquered them and went on to find the gold strike the very next day.

Now, as we look back on our coralling the Broncos, the January Whirl-pool, the Proms, Rose's Ranch, Sheriff McDowell's posse, and those Pioneer Breakfasts, we should like to revisit the sites of our trials; in fact, we should like to get out the wagon and do it all over again, for our lives never will be so happy as they were on that trip through S. H. S.

DEDICATION

WE 49ers have always found a word of consolation and advice if we dropped into 240 with our troubles. Your smile, your "Hi!", the penguins on your desk, the twinkle in your eye, and your devotion to Bandy have all made us think of you as one of us. We can never forget you, Mrs. Schumann, and so that you won't forget us, we dedicate our Bandy to you.

AT THE END OF THE TRAIL

*We've come to the end of our long, long trek—
I guess we've left each teacher a wreck.
But the fun we've had we wouldn't trade,
And we feel proud in making the grade.
The dances, the "Billboard," the football games,
In this Bandy you'll see all the names
Of Scarsdale High School in '49.
You'll get the picture by reading each line.
Each one of us miners has struck his gold
In the form of a white diploma, we're told.
And that cherished scroll is only a part
Of the mem'ries each senior will keep in his heart.*

CLASS

THE year is 1944. Now promoted to the almighty seventh grade, we gaze up at the gargantuan juniors, and we can't help wondering what it will be like come 1949. So let us polish off our worn crystal ball and see what we can about ze future. Aha! Little do we believe it when we see Dave Grogan, followed by Jack Kern, bounding up the basketball court. Next we find, armed with hockey sticks and blackjacks, our G. A. A. (and that doesn't stand for Glamorous Amorous Athletes) representatives, Bonnie, Whitey, Judy, Mac, and Lucie.

Rod Young, Sandy Rubin, and Judy Freydborg are drifting into the picture now, and all three seem a bit perturbed. Maybe learning lines for the next dramatic club production isn't quite as easy as it's cracked up to be! Suddenly a loud outburst is heard while Judy Cohn, Debbie Stoddard, and Don Mook, recently escaped from the Music Tower, give out with the old song and dance routine.

As the scene shifts between Jabby and Maroon rooms, we find Benji, Renata, Irwin, and Glazie feeding their various publications a well-balanced diet of literature.

A black cloud seems to be obscuring our vision. As it lifts, we see Doug Morgan and Adrian Budlong whiz by in their, if you'll pardon the expression, cars.

Next is heard a furor around the hallowed halls of Ye Olde Institution. It seems that this year Edgemont kicked in with some pretty appealing attractions. Alan, Dibbie, Ann, Bert, Doris, Mac, and Delsa are good proof of this.

We see Matthew Mitchell, Peggy Surdy, and Sally Smith blithely discarding their high honor roll cards.

As the crystal ball fades, we catch a glimpse of the dreaded disease—Spring Fever—setting in on our well-behaved juniors.

Ah well! Only pipe dreams! It's a long time till 1949. D'ya really think a junior year could be that wonderful!

CLASS OF 1951

FLASH! Albert Einstein has just come up with the remarkable formula $49 + 2 = 51$. Do you realize the possibilities of his finding? It means that two years from now the class of '51 will be in the saddle, and as sophomores they have already shown their mettle. With Mills on the Varsity and Lucy and Patty cheering the team on to victory, they afforded the seniors stiff competition. While Willy, Shirley, Judy, and Patty worked on the G. A. A. for bigger and better games, Joanne followed a hockey ball up and down the field. And this year saw some terrific dances, thanks to Lucy, Patty, and Margaret. Herb and Willy certainly found them satisfactory. . . . The rest of the school took notes from sophs on the latest in hair styles for men. Our fuzzy-wuzzy squad, Herb, Bob, Bruce, and Don, with Mr. Reid as faculty advisor, were up to the minute. . . . Who's that we see floating around gyms A and B? Why, it's Judy and Joanne, of course, practicing their modern prancing. . . . As we look at the class from a more serious point of view, we spot Tom and his Troop of Kings, Queens, and Bishops; Linda, Susi, Catherine, Enid and Margaret gathering grist for Wimpy's mill (Maroon to you!); and Lois and Jean struggling to feed the ravenous Jabberwock. Take it for all and all, it's been a fine year, and we hope next year's sophs have as great a time as we had.

Berniker, C. Lindroth, P. O'Brien.

JUNIOR ACTIVITIES

UNDER Allan Baldwin's excellent direction, the budding geni of the seventh, eighth and ninth grades have made a fine record this year. While the Council has enjoyed itself thoroughly in the fulfillment of its duties, it has also achieved success in making the group a spokesman of the students. Several of their accomplishments were a noontime study room supervised by students, a variety of dances and parties, more and better issues of Scrivener, and chartered buses to school activities. When certain young ladies refused to follow parliamentary procedure in the presentation of their motions, Allan learned at first hand of the trials of an executive. In hopes of improving the Council, the Junior G. O. sent a delegation to Pelham.

SIGNIFIER

THE door stealthily opens, an arm appears and snatches the absence slip off the hook. Who is it? Who else but one of the diligent members of Signifer performing his sacred duty! These are the geniuses whose averages are impressive enough to enable them to be freed from study hall several times a week to work in the office, rescue lost parents, and occasionally serve as guides. These and other scholarly duties keep this little band, headed by Joan Voss, well occupied and often rather confused. Well, as it is frequently said, "It pays to be ignorant."

FORUM

FORUM, Scarsdale High's society for beclouding controversial issues, added some new beclouders to its membership of battle-scarred veterans this year. Hiya, Ronnie! Stimulated by a presidential campaign to end all campaigns and polls (and pollsters!), Forum treated itself to some interesting discussions. From the Alaskan Indians to morals in present-day life, the range of subjects was wide and that of opinions wider, but Tom managed to keep some semblance of order. As to debates at other schools, can we ever forget that Tom and Wimpy battled for J. Strom in Bronxville? Better luck in '52, boys!

Wilbur.

MAROON

THERE have been some changes made in the '49ers Maroon. Publius moved over from "Letters to the Editors" to the editorial column, and he and Joan produced reams of fighting editorials. The name plate moved to a more daring position, indicating a radical trend. Bobby K. contracted a foul disease called "Jub Jub" while Irwin begged more space. During the melee Mr. Ayer tore his hair (sing.), and Mr. Myers calmly looked on. Flugy and Mack carried concealed typewriters in basketballs, and Norm and Dave wore out raincoat after raincoat covering games.

JABBERWOCK

THE Jabberwock, like its namesake, burbled as it came. It burbled in prose and in poetry, in light and in serious vein; it burbled in every literary form known to man and beast, as a properly domesticated Jabberwock should. This year there was a new trainer in the person of faculty advisor Samuel Withers. The obstreperous beast was appeased and cajoled by Julie, Carol, Ralph, and Karolina, while Laurel, Barbara, and Sandra drew pictures of him and otherwise ministered to his ego. The avowed purpose, to lose so little on each issue that it made money, was furthered by sales at the stand of the Union News Service at the Scarsdale Station.

Swan, C. Werner.

ADVERTISING CLUB

YOU can always distinguish the Advertising Club members by the worn out and flapping soles on their shoes. Day after day they make the rounds, leaving penniless shopkeepers and business men in their wake. Well instructed in their CRAFTSmanship, these kids know just how to wheedle out of a stubborn client a page of advertising for a needy publication. President Betty Bevier leads the parade while Jane Mangan writes all inducing letters to prospective customers out of walking distance.

RIFLE CLUB

HAVE you ever wondered about those strange sounds coming from behind that mysterious door in the basement? Well, it's the Rifle Club. If you have any intention of joining, be sure your eyes are perfect. Blindness has no place among these dead-eye Dicks.

President Jack Marshall, assisted by Joan Voss, vice-president, makes sure that the club keeps in shape for all matches. With Mr. Pfaff as advisor, this year's club will probably shoot its way to victories galore.

PUBLICITY CLUB

POSTERS to the left of us! Posters to the right of us! Yesterday all we saw were walls, dull gray walls, but today school is a haven of color. The Publicity Club has been at work again. After long hours under the paint brush, their finished products were on display, heralding future events. No dance, musical, or dramatic program escaped the notice of President Alice Monroe, and at her command the club sprang into action. The results were a group of posters which not only served a purpose but also greatly enhanced the beauty of "ole" Scarsdale High.

CAMERA CLUB

SPEAKING of lighting effects, the flash-fiends of our Camera Club are tops in the trade. They've illuminated S. H. S. from basketball games to dances. Can it be that our chaperones pay for the bulbs? These boys are responsible for the action shots in the Maroon and the Bandy candid. With a private darkroom and the guidance of "Evola" Bohn, chief flash, the lens lunatics latch on the positive and develop the negative.

CLASSICS CLUB

"CHECK your togas and daggers here. Your couch is next to 'Lux' Jane Mangan's by the pillar on the left. Would you care for some wine, Secundus?" Hey, what's going on? Why, of course, it's the annual Roman banquet, and the eleven stalwarts are celebrating their safe arrival from the hazardous voyages of Aeneas. These "socii" have been through the wars of Caesar and the politics of Cicero; now they can lay down their arms and rest.

CLASSICS CLUB

First Row—Miss Rose, Advisor; K. Kalm, Secretary; E. Donovan, Treasurer; C. Whitehill, J. Mangan, President; S. Singer, S. Klee, B. Shiff. Second Row—B. Agee, J. Hinsey, S. Barnes, R. Krause.

MAGICIANS CLUB

THE Magicians Club kept the school befuddled this year; with Walter Swertfager, president, nothing was "Tew" fantastic for a stunt. The prestidigitators threw lots of crepe paper around in an assembly here in April, but there was plenty more for Edgewood in May. Furthermore, these boys didn't stoop to pulling rabbits out of hats (that's too impractical). It's well to be in the good graces of such fellows; they have winning ways—at cards that is.

MAGICIANS CLUB

CHESS CLUB

EXCEPT for an occasional yell of triumph as a member checkmated an opponent, the Chess Club rolled smoothly and silently along. If one had opened the door of Room 41, he would have seen Bill Williams and Tom Throop locked in life-and-death struggle (on the board, of course) while Royce Gully and Bob Whiteside looked on, and Mr. Pratt added his comments from the sideline. The Chess Team, which had a very successful season, participated in nine league matches.

SKI CLUB

NO one knew how many daredevils there were in S. H. S. until Doc Farrow formed the Ski Club. At once thousands of people began climbing over each other in an effort to obtain one of those little membership cards. In order to cut down the casualties on the slippery slopes, the members, including Claude de Bogdan, chief daredevil, were given instructions in ski steps and practical first aid. While most skiing was done vicariously by movies, some of the more courageous souls actually took a few trips.

BULLETIN BOARD

Standing—R. Thies, N. Callaway, Secretary; W. Swertfager, President; J. Steinkamp, Vice-President; Miss Kaley, Advisor; W. Vail, C. Claffin, G. Williams. Kneeling—M. Urban, L. BULLETIN BOARD—"Huh?" This is the laudatory and not too infrequent comment bestowed on the handiwork of the staple, stamp, and stick club, better known as the Bulletin Board Committee. Pablo Picasso Swertfager majordomos the organization as only the man with experience could. Alice Monroe is chief keeper of the scotch tape as Vice-President, and Secretary Nancy Callaway holds the thumb tacks.

LIBRARY STAFF—Go into the library any time, and—lo!—a member of the Library Staff. These willing martyrs, led by Mary Jane White, sacrifice at least two study halls a week for the purpose of easing the librarians' lives. The more important members sit behind the desk checking books in and out, while the lesser ones scurry around shelving books, fixing magazines, and checking attendance.

PRINTING CLUB AND PROJECTION CLUB—Congratulations to Don Pegg and Mr. Bush on the new low reached in fingers caught in the printing press, as the Printing Club's eleven members ground out sports schedules and dance tickets in an everlasting galaxy of color. Congratulations, also, to the Projection Club, which, after a slow start, soon picked up under Mr. Davenport's direction.

USHERS—Three cheers for Shirley and our infallible usherettes! These are the girls who led you down the dark, formidable aisles to the right seat. Up and down they dashed. "101 E? Two seats in. Here's your program, sir." For the flashlights and seating charts issued by the inimitable Mr. Ross, our gals have given up many of their weekend evenings to the service of Scarsdale's first-nighters.

STAGE, LIGHTING CREW, AND MAKE-UP COMMITTEES—Buzzing around behind the scenes are these three active groups setting up scenery, smearing on make-up, and flipping switches. The Lighting Crew applied their savoir-faire to lighting up the grease paint applied by Mary Jane and her three Masketeers. With the scenery created by the Stage Crew, these groups combined to make our productions more successful.

STORE AND TRAFFIC SQUAD—Agnes, Nancy, Helen and Irene owe their sylph-like figure to forgetful latecomers, for they kept the store open during lunch hour instead of eating. In addition to directing traffic around school, Tod's boys watched the parking lot for the benefit of those who left radios playing or lights burning.

spread around elsewhere, too. The orchestra was represented at White Plains in the all-state music festival, and the band made several other appearances away from school. We just couldn't keep to ourselves a trio of trumpets like Graham, Dan, and Bill, or Tom's big smile behind a big fiddle. As usual the combined choruses poured forth Yuletide cheer, but the marvel of the performance lay, not in Handel's Messiah, but in the precision with which Mr. Lawson snapped the group up and down by remote control. When choruses and orchestra co-operated in the spring, they produced the unforgettable operetta, The Yeomen of the Guard, a brilliant finale to a full year.

"BUT, Bev, the deadline is the fifteenth! We've got to have the baseball write-up, ple-ese!" Such are the frantic cries of our harried co-editors, Peg and Joe. Since Bandy went to bed a month early this year, they had some fast yearbooking to do. It all started last fall when Mrs. S. chained Nancy to her drawing board while Tom and Shirl locked Cap in the safe. When it came to passing out awards of merit, "Bones" was given a jar of rubber cement; Sue, a flashbulb; Ethelyn and Art, a pack of 8x10 cards. Then we handed Syd a nail file and Ellie and Ralph a Harbrace Handbook. We thought also that Jane really ought to have a two weeks' vacation in the Junior High, and Betty needed a new magnifying glass after all that scrutinizing. Well—"veni, vidi, vici"—and it's all yours.

CALENDAR

This collage of 18 black and white photographs captures a variety of student life from the mid-1940s. The images are arranged in an overlapping fashion. Key scenes include:

- Two students standing outdoors in casual clothing.
- Two students sitting at a desk, one looking at a book.
- A student in a letterman-style jacket with a large 'S' on the chest.
- A student in a light-colored dress standing next to a student in a plaid shirt and overalls.
- A football game in progress, with a player in a striped jersey running with the ball.
- A group of students holding up pennants with the letter 'S'.
- Students sitting at desks in a classroom.
- A student sitting on a bench, looking towards the camera.
- A student sitting at a desk, looking at a book.
- A band member playing a large drum.
- A student in a plaid shirt and overalls standing next to a student in a dark coat.
- A student in a light-colored dress standing outdoors.
- A group of students sitting together, smiling.
- A student in a dark coat bending over a desk.

The cartoon strip consists of three panels. In the first panel, a boy and a girl are walking together. The boy is wearing a striped shirt and the girl is wearing a checkered shirt. In the second panel, the boy is holding a book labeled 'BALL GAMES' and looking at it. In the third panel, the girl is sitting on the ground, looking distressed, and the boy is standing over her, looking down. There is a star symbol above the boy's head in the third panel.

Finally the week ended and there came the old familiar sight—a "roll-up-the-carpet" party—dealt by a newcomer from Baaston, Pat Potter. That was the night that Bill Bohn and Dave Swertfager were seen under the Smörgasbord after a home-made light shade of theirs lost its balance.

After one hundred per cent of us dug down deep into our mines to chunk off two dollars for the G. O. ticket, the Council presented their sales show to the rest of the school with Dan ("Jes... ta minute") Flint and Willie ("Wha hopped") Winship—star of stage, screen, radio and a 1942 Pontiac.

Well, here we were, undefeated, untied, un-scored-upon, and ready for the first game with Yonkers Central. We won the toss and, by the way, the game—6-0. Beneath the strains of "Bill-board" came cheers for Vic Mahler, who broke his nose, and Ralph Rogers, who broke his fingers; but both had their helmets back on again before too many days had passed.... The day after Wally's game celebration found the roads crowded with anything from a Model "A" to a Model Cadillac cruising down to Jones Beach for the first senior class outing. And, in speaking of autos, we should mention Bart's quick departure from a gas station, leaving his car door as collateral. Well, anyway, after a quick game of boys vs. girls football, which saw the veteran halfback Anita Schlosser take a pass from Betty Goff for the only score, the gang paraded into the cold surf. Those of us who survived saw Jack Harrison and Joan Mack, dressed in dungarees and T-shirts, play tag with the onrushing waves. Needless to say, the waves were not "it" for long.

'Round this time, Walt and Nancy's Social Planning Board got rolling and outlined the schedule of dances, and long 'bout here came the senior class elections. We got the same crew again with Graham Williams, Mary Jane White, and Tom Wilson with Vic Mahler replacing G. O. President Bill MacDowell as second mate.... More elections! The junior high had an exciting week deciding among their G. O. candidates. Al Baldwin and Jim Kingsbury ran one-two.

Our assembly series was initiated by Herrick Young, who gave a philosophical dissertation on the utilities of pedantic increment of... well, it was Book Week. On top of that, White Studio made its annual invasion to make us say "cheez" and to flip the shutter on our burned-out expressions. Many notables were seen signing up for retakes, while others suggested adding their pen name (W684952) to the photo.

As the calendar trotted up through October, it rounded the far turn and met the Bellows game. We tied, Don Whyte struggling through a solution of H_2O and sod for our only marker. Regardless of the day, we all had fun at MacDowell's Varsity Club Shindig, but quite a few awaited their annual trip to the Danbury Fair. John Fennie and Co. climbed into his car, that sleek V-5 Ford, and headed north to make their appearance on the midway. . . . The following Thursday, Columbus Day, we traipsed over to South Field to see our football felines calling signals and running through tackle plays. Because of her fine showing in the brawl, Diana Kay almost replaced Don Whyte in the Friday mix-up with Rye. But . . . when Don teamed up with Wally on a 105-yard run, her chances went down to defeat, as did Rye, 19-0. This was the first of the series of on-the-spot broadcasts by Ralph Allinger and WFAS, with Pete Cooper as Ralphie's spotter. The golden sun and the Old Gold-en smoke made it difficult for either of them to see the players, and this was the day that beloved North Field was christened "North Stadium."

Along about evening we saw wagons heading for Meril May's or Sally Howe's for entertainment. Meril's Monte Carlo room was frequented by such illustriates as Pete Irish, Charlie Kahle, and Bob Olson. The following night Ed Netter threw open his walls, and even several of Scarsdale's finest "crashed" the party. That was the night that Howie Cervantes called long distance on the Netter's phone; as the host entered, Howie quickly asked his mother when she planned to return from Japan. When we picked Edward up off the floor, the party continued as planned.

Came here—Sarita's closed, open house. Barred entrance by B. J. Smith, our Bill Bohn and Stew Smith decided to play firemen, and quickly ran a ladder up to a second story window. (No go.)

Around October eighteenth our senior class

Dear Ellen,
It's been fun knowing you this year and I really hope to see more of you next year. Love, [signature] rings arrived, and we mounted the last steps to becoming seniors. Because of financial difficulties brought about by the aforementioned, many of us spent the following weekend at home.

With the second contract swinging into view, one morning the first senior breakfast was staged in the cafeteria. It featured Jim Adams singing and leading the class in the new doze-n songs written by such illustrious Gershwins as Doc Farrow, the Wolfs, Coatesie, and Nancy Callaway. Bob Foster and Sylvia Tuttle danced down the canyon as Clementine and her Lem; and a real 49er, Gus Kirby, spoke on the recent Olympics. Speaking in the language we understand best, he told us some of his experiences with the United States Olympic team in London this year. Our own western band, Dave Crane, Bob Cutting and the boys, rounded out the program.

Finally we reached the day of the Eastchester game (certainly a milestone), where the cheering put Stan Kenton (appearing at the County Center that night) and his music to shame. Under cover of darkness, Bob Larkin called the three-four-but-I-keep-the-ball quickie and rolled up 30 yards to aid in the 21-0 defeat. . . . The variety show at the Scarsdale Theater Friday night, at which Jim Thrasher took the prize for his drumming, started the Hallowe'en weekend off. The men in blue were busy the next night as our own Paul Bunyans were out felling trees and goal posts, but the trick of the evening was to find a girl at the recreation dance at the alma mater.

With the national elections coming up, the spotlight was on the Republican, the Democratic, and the Juniorette Parties Monday night. As usual, a day off is followed by an off-day, but Tom Deitsch wasn't too downcast collecting election bets.

Parties, parties, parties, always parties. . . . The first vice-versa dance at Bobbie Martens' made its entrance this week in November. It was rumored later that many of the boys' dances were going to employ Beryl (or is it Berly?) Gillies as bouncer at the door because of her superb job. . . . Saturday Briggs' brigade appeared at Yankee Stadium as Stanford's representative. Sparked by the moral support of William (Bill, to you) Board, the band performed on the playing field at half time and Nancy Dee Midyette, Kathy Woelper, and Mary Jo Wilbur were caught by the television and news-reel cameras while cheering for the K-dets.

That night Charlie Mosher's get-together was a big success with "Mrs." Mosher and Mrs. Mosher greeting the guests at the door . . .

Around the corner came the Bandy assembly. Bill Bohn opened the show and nearly closed it with the joke about "For land sakes!" Then he took us back to 1849 and the Gold Nugget Saloon, where we looked in on a familiar group of gold-diggers. We were thrilled with the story of the Bandy map (see fly leaf), which was speculated (look it up) by Dangerous Dan the Villain and his resolute (that one, too) henchmen, Scarface Benson and Limpy Fennie. Introduced by a chorus line, Bill Schmidt, Clint Leonard, Coby Ayer, and Frankie Dezort as singing waiters sang some of their favorites and ours. And after Al Beck and Bob Larkin took us to the movies, the Three Ringers, Adams, Hull, and Marden, sang and brought the culprit back, as the extravaganza rolled down its curtain to the tune of "Bandy."

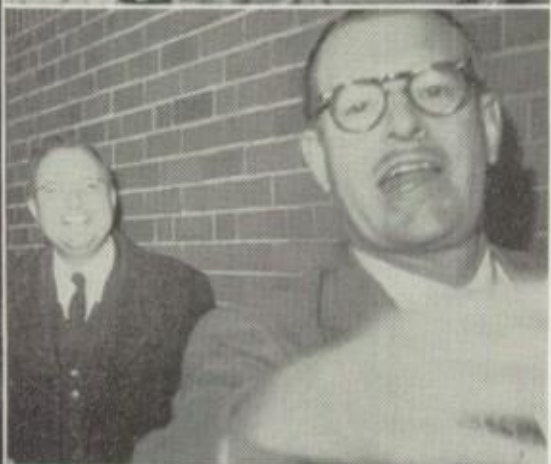

As the year pressed onward, the Discussion Club again sponsored a dance with a band featuring Jack Harrison and Jim Straus. All day rehearsals for the fall play, Troop 3's victory in the annual Boy Scout rally, and Johnny Johnson's bazaar led to a glorious week with our college conferences with the deans and was climaxed by a 42-6 win over Horace Mann of New York. All these events led up to the week of November 15 as "push, pull, click, click" . . .

. . . We were ready for the Bronxville game. Sporting our Maroon and White, we jammed the auditorium to hear Mel Allen talk about Baseball, Ballantine, and White Owls. Seen emerging from the autograph line was Bill Durland, who, when asked if he got Mel's signature, told us that he had given him his. A blocked kick and a pass to Weissinger gave us a 13-7 victory (in the rain, by the way). The dance that night featured Billy

During this week of club pictures for the Bandy we learned of the high awards that Joan Voss and W. Drake Thies received in The Journal-American History Contest, and watched our basketball team beat White Plains in a scrimmage on our "dance-floor."

The most talked of event of the year came up at this time—Senior Favorites election. Items of note were the tie between Bobbie Martens and Ann Butler for Best Looking, and Bill Berlin's triumph for Best Sport.

Christmas was in the air as the Bulletin Board Committee set up its program of Yuletide music that was mighty pleasin' to the ears. This was the week that Al Grosby aged five years as the cafeteria sang "Happy Birthday" to him daily, amidst a shower of paper bags. . . . Now came the French Club and the Spanish Club Christmas parties. The Ski Club with its "beautiful but numb" girls and boys ventured out to the mountain, the-hill-leading-from-the-Post-Road-to-the-North-Field, and practiced their "stem christies" (oh, yeah?).

The second Senior Breakfast came along and we heard the famous Dodger baseball star, Jackie Robinson. When the Giant and Yankee fans came back, we were entertained by Don Hancock's version of "Life Can Be Beautiful," starring our own nobodies; and after Al Beck got his two front teeth back in, Bob Agee and a few others presented a Santa Claus skit. Santa Vic Mahler and Dave Swertfager presented the Senior Favorites Awards, including two gold bricks to Most "Skeptical," Marilyn Urban and Charles Mosher. Under the spell of Jimmy Carr's music and overhanging clouds we enjoyed ourselves that night at the Christmas Dance. Vi Mitchell and Sue Swanson were mild hits in their low cut dresses, but the surprise occurred when the lights unexpectedly went out when Mr. Melchior and Miss Chamberlin were dancing (and after their recent talks on our style of dancing. My, my!)

Annually at this time the music department presents the Messiah, and they did this year, too.

It was a splendid program with seniors Jim Adams, Sue Hosking, Ethelyn Mallan, Pat Potter, and Carol Eaton singing solos. After trips to see the Freedom Train, Skip Reid's benefit dance, last minute shopping, and the singing of carols by the lighted tree, we were certainly glad to see Santa creep in the front door. After a great number of ties and handkerchiefs had been returned, cars were seen heading for the Juniores' dance at the Woman's Club.

As clock hands closing like scissor blades on midnight sniped off another year, lights all over the country went out, especially at Harry Scarlett's and Coatsie Douglas', where one of the chief jobs was keeping crashers out and singing "Happy Birthday" to Marilyn Urban. As the yawning hours crept up, a peek into Kit Pleuthner's house revealed some boys over a stove frying eggs. The discussion at the Discussion Club open house the next afternoon was the night before.

Getting back to school affairs now—this was the week that Popeye and his famous "toots" came to visit us... the first basketball game with Fieldston netted us a win, but the Ardsley game that followed wasn't so fortunate. The only highlight was the cry from the stands, "All right, Vic; drop Louie" (that was the ref's name).

With the start of the weekend basketball program quite a few senior teams appeared on the floor for their first game. Especially noticeable was John Fennie's Flynsahs dressed in bathrobes and sporting crew cuts. (They were trying to outclass Mr. Reid.) Saturday we trudged to White Plains for our "fuel: coal-oil-turtle-wood" tests, and the next afternoon Leroy Schwabe thrilled us with his violin solo... At the Children to Palestine dance, we sat in night club surroundings, sang birthday greetings to our friend from Austria, Gerhard Andlinger, and enjoyed a floor show, emceed by Walter. Oh, yes, we did some dancing too, and talked about the Red Barber show which featured our own quiz kids. Who was surprised that Sally Barnes answered the question about the St. Louis Billikins?... Friday we seniors rushed to get choice seats in the senior section at the first home basketball game with Concordia. With the shouts of "down in front" and the bursting of flashbulbs, we watched the new electric scoreboard click off the score until the end of the game when the lights said "Visitors 41, Home Team 58!"

The dance at Bob Robertson's led the next night to Bart McNamee's Varsity Club party, where groups were gathered around Patty Landis, who was all tied up—in string, and Peg Corrough, chief passer of the grapefruit.

The first Sunday in February we went to the thirteenth band concert, which featured Bob Cutting's violin solo for a one-armed paper hanger. Paul Terry, the famed cartoonist, was the guest at the third senior breakfast, and that night we had the school sponsored Turn-About Dance with Mardi Gras trimmings—on the walls and on the participants. Just around the corner came the April Fools' Dance and the Spring Prom, and along with these the Junior and Senior Variety assemblies.

Ah, Spring, the time when farmers and golfers do their early plowing! Baseball games, the spring play, and the operetta Yeomen of the Guard were all on the agenda. As class day rolled around and our Bandy made its appearance, we began getting reminiscent of our many days spent at Scarsdale. We started to say good-bye to our teachers, the custodians, the deans, Mr. Nelson, and Dr. Smith with tears in our eyes and lumps in our hearts.

Remember the assemblies, those unexpected fire drills, all the cars in the parking lot, "Billboard," and "When Scarsdale's Red and White Men Fall in Line," Julie's Jabby, the tough days of the Source Theme, Maria Rebeca, singing "Happy Birthday" at lunch, and the Diner after each party—remember?

What is so rare as an "A" in June, but what is rarer than an "A" come June 24—Commencement? As we come up, out of our mines, we abandon our claims to the class of 1950. And now, having received our diplomas, we climb into the old buckboard and move on to new and unexplored territory.

VARSIITY FOOTBALL

ALTHOUGH handicapped by more than the usual number of injuries, Scarsdale managed to complete an eight-game schedule with six victories. With David Buchanan at the helm, the Maroon amassed 127 points to 40 for the opposition.

The season's inaugural with Yonkers Central terminated in a victory for Scarsdale as Walt Weissinger, on a pass from Dave Grogan, accounted for the only score of the day and Yonkers' only defeat of the year.

The best played game of the year occurred at Pelham, where the Raiders toppled the Pelicans, 13-7. Weissinger set up both touchdowns in the first half, one on a pass to Mills Ripley and the other as a result of a fifty-three yard aerial to Don Whyte. In the second half a powerful Scarsdale defense made good on its slim six-point lead.

In the rain and mud at F. E. Bellows, though, Scarsdale was held to a disappointing 7-7 deadlock. The Maroon's only score resulted from a two-yard plunge by Whyte, terminating a fifty-three-yard march.

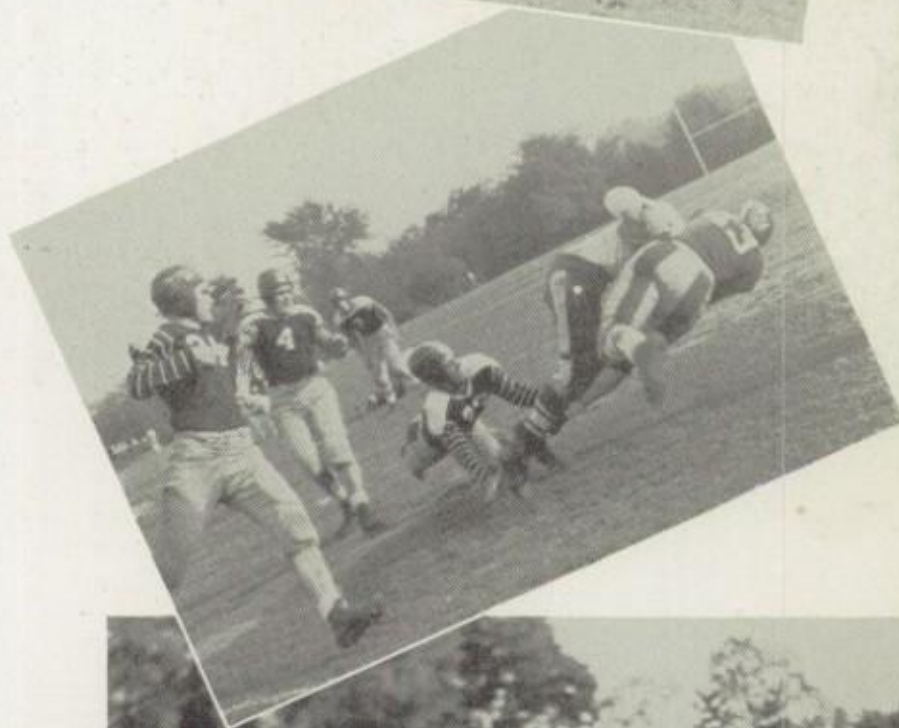

Scarsdale soon returned to victory by trouncing Rye on interceptions, 19-0. The first score came when Whyte tallied after taking a lateral from Weissinger, who had intercepted a pass in the end zone and run it out to his own forty. Ripley and Whyte added two other scores in the second half.

Whyte, second high scorer in the White Plains area, accounted for two more counters as Scarsdale subdued Eastchester, 21-0. Grogan's aerial to Weissinger accounted for the third tally. The three conversions were added by Ken Reichert, who was used sparingly because of injuries.

Blessed Sacrament handed Scarsdale its only defeat, 12-6. Two early touchdowns were enough for the Cardinals, but the Raiders threatened to nullify these on a deep thrust late in the game. Earlier, Grogan had registered from the two, climaxing a 69-yard drive.

Horace Mann was no match for Scarsdale as the Raiders romped over the opponents, 42-7. Backs Charlie Mosher and Bob Larkin led the way with the help of a powerful line headed by Hinsey, Rogers, and Kaplan. Reichert netted a field goal and three conversions.

The season was climaxed at Bronxville, where Scarsdale defied the enemy and the elements by winning, 13-7. Reichert converted after a Grogan-to-Weissinger aerial opened the scoring. The Broncos reciprocated, but in the second half a blocked punt by Jacobsen was recovered in the Bronxville end zone by Dehlendorf for the winning marker. Jacobsen's booming punts and superior line play by the Raiders assisted in the victory.

GIRLS' HOCKEY

WINDING up the intramural hockey season in November, Marjorie Gatchell's and Sarita Sluis' teams came out on top after two months of competition.

From eighty eager athletes, Miss Isenberg chose the honor squad one sunny (?) day in September. Twelve girls were selected to represent Scarsdale at a playday in Connecticut.

In addition to the fact that they were undefeated during the day, special credit was given to Lucie Barnes, who made the All-Public School Team, and Adrienne McCutcheon, who got honorable mention for excellent playing. Sandy Singer, the team's incomparable manager, also received praise for doing the best job on the hockey officials' test.

Soon after, both teams met their first scheduled opponent, Pleasantville. The Jayvee led by Betty Bevier, who made two goals, won 3-0. The additional point was scored by Beryl Gillies. The Varsity tied 1-1 with the only tally made by Flugy.

At that time the forward line was the weak spot on the Varsity.

The teams next met a challenging opponent in Pelham. The Varsity was unable to break that tying streak. Losing in the first half, Adrienne McCutcheon and Whitey switched positions and things started popping. Taking the ball all the way down the field, Adrienne scored to end the game 1-1. The Jayvee won 2-0 with Betty and Beryl scoring again.

The Varsity game with Bronxville was really a thriller. Expecting to be badly beaten, the girls showed excellent team work and spirit. The backs clicked from the start, and early in the game Lucie scored for the Maroon. Bronxville made a goal soon after, and the game ended in a 1-1 tie. The team felt the loss of Shirley Abbott greatly. The Jayvee suffered its only defeat of the season with Frankie making the only goal. The score was 2-1 in favor of Bronxville. At the close of this game, a celebration at "Papa John's" officially completed the season.

VARSITY CLUB

FROM a past cloaked with mystery, the Varsity Club, under the leadership of Chief Paddler Tom Wilson, Assistant Wally Weissinger, and Scribe Charles Russell Ellis, Jr., this year entered into numerous projects intended to improve athletics in S. H. S. The beef trust boys served coke at the basketball games, handled the crowds, and added new pictures to the Hall of Fame outside Gym A and B. Realizing the importance of social life, they gave a dance at Bill's under the Pay-as-you-come plan, as well as a private affair at Bart's.

G.A.A.

WITH one hand in the lunchbag and one in the air, each of Miss Isenberg's twelve wonders helps keep the meetings going at an animated clip. Just what does go on at these secretive cabals in Room 110? Wal... these gal athletes arrange for the three Honor Team games, keep a close check on rules 'n' regulations, and plan the after-game refreshments... to say nothing of intramural awards. Led by Shirley Baldwin, president, the Girls' Athletic Association makes girls' sports so much fun.

GIRLS' BASEBALL

WITH the budding of the flowers, in between cases of spring fever, Scarsdale High girls were eager to be started with baseball.

On the squad for their last year were Shirley Baldwin, Gayle Butcher, Anita Schlosser, Lorraine Patterson and others. Diana Kay, Kathleen O'Connor, and Carol Whitehill out in the field got little work with Bobby's steady pitching. After much batting, catching and sliding practice, the team was ready to take on anyone (except the boys). Miss Thompson spurred the team on throughout the season. So long for the summer, girls; you were a great team.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

AFTER tryouts, practices, and continuously chasing the boys off the courts, there suddenly emerged a spirited '49 basketball team.

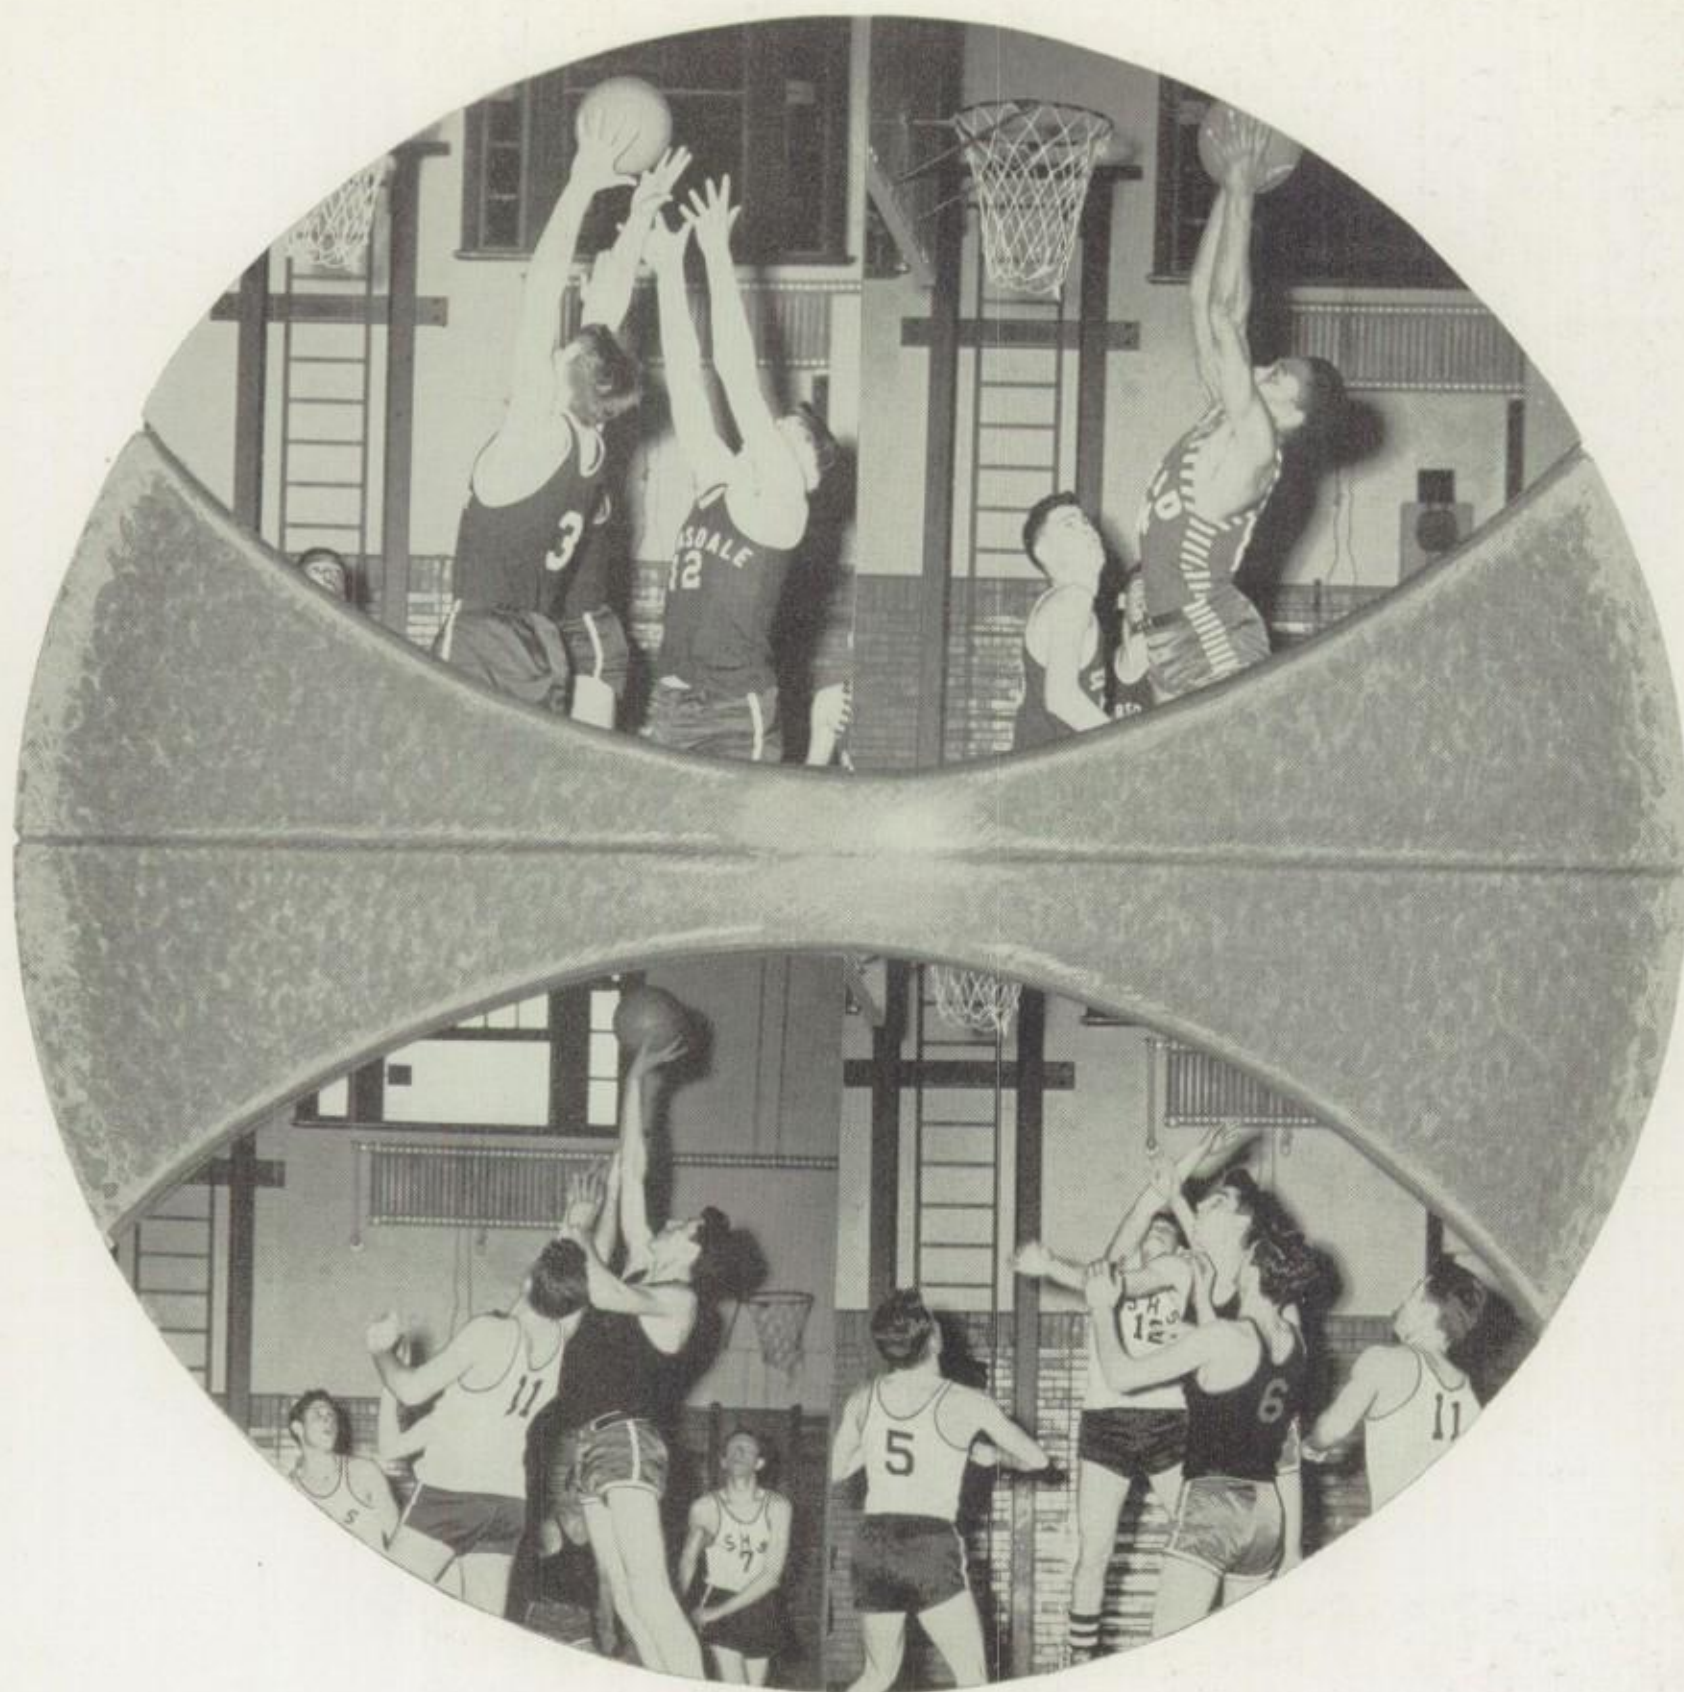

Seven girls who saw action for the last time were forwards K. O'Connor, B. Bevier, J. Fluegelman, and guards D. Kay, A. Monroe, S. Baldwin, and B. McAleer.

There were three teams, plus a few substitutes chosen this year, and under the guidance of Miss Isenberg the J. V. and third teams were undefeated, while the Varsity won one, tied one, and lost one.

VARSIITY BASKETBALL

WITH Coach William Schmidt and a fast, aggressive group of athletes hoping to atone for a very poor 1948 basketball season, this year's aggregation ended up as a big improvement over its predecessors. Building the quintet around Walt Kenny at center, Schmidt mainly used Dave Grogan, Vic Mahler and Walt Weisinger as guards, and Bob Dehlendorf, Bruce Vogel, and Don Whyte as forwards.

In the initial encounter, the Red Raiders easily emerged victorious over Fieldston by 37-24. Grogan led the onslaught as he bucketed 10 points. Sets by Mahler, White, Vogel and Reeves highlighted the first half of play as center Kenny set up an innumerable number of plays.

The hope for an unblemished record soon vanished as Ardsley halted the Raider attack, 30-29, in the Ardsley band-box gym. Dehlendorf emerged as high scorer with 9 points despite his late appearance in the fray. A crowd-pleasing one-hander by Mahler in the closing minute was to no avail.

Making up for last year's defeat at the hands of Concordia, Scarsdale subdued the Clippers by a substantial margin, 58-41. Duer and Capple collected 15 and 14 points respectively for the visitors, but Dehlendorf, Kenny and Vogel matched this as they accounted for 45 of their team's 58 points. Kenny's 6 markers in the second quarter gave the Raiders a half-time advantage of 7, and Vogel added to this as he tallied 7 times in the third stanza.

Hansome up there is me loads of fun

The Darien contest was a repetition of the Concordia affair as Dehlendorf's 15 points sank the Connecticut carom shooters, 51-34. Smart playing of the post position by Kenny enabled the speedy forwards to sink easy close shots. Mahler's fine defensive work was primarily responsible for holding the Darien total to a minimum.

Scarsdale continued in its rare form by trouncing Hackley, 51-38. Grogan's 18 tallies led the way, with Vogel and Dehlendorf also scoring in the double figures. A brief appearance by the second string consisting of Reichert, Hinsey, Weissinger, Larkin and Reeves also held the Hackleyites at bay in the closing minutes.

The inevitable happened, though, as Pelham, the County's number one team, drove Scarsdale completely into rout, 72-36. An astounding shooting percentage in the first half got the Pelicans off winging, and they were never in danger as they continued to outplay and outrun their hosts.

The Raiders tasted defeat for the third time at the hands of Rye, 41-39. Donovan's lay-up with two seconds left gave his team the game-winning basket. Just previously Mahler had tied the count with a clean hit. Scarsdale led during the greater part of the contest, and late in the fourth quarter Vogel's free throw broke a 35-35 deadlock after a surge of Rye points had knotted the score.

Despite Lenny Lyons' 23 points, Bronxville was nipped by Scarsdale in a thriller, 37-36. The Raiders, having one of their good days at the foul line, sank 11 shots, and this meant the difference. Vogel's charity toss, breaking a 30-30 tie, proved to be the turning point in the game.

Buster Hardin monopolized the Eastchester attack as the Eagles took a 50-41 decision over the Raiders. The home team's tight defense forced Scarsdale to try from the outside. Mahler and Grogan each scored 10 points on long range attempts, but this fell short as Eastchester collected its first victory in 11 outings.

The climax of the season occurred with the return of night basketball to Scarsdale. With New York School for the Deaf as their opponents, the Raiders split a twin bill by winning on Duval's shot in the jayvee contest, 27-26, but losing in overtime in the varsity game, 48-47. Kenny's foul shot sent the tilt into the extra session, but Lorello of the New Yorkers added 4 points and an ultimate win.

CROSS COUNTRY

*First Row—C. Ellis, D. Keller.
Second Row—D. Flint, Manager;
D. Tiihonen, R. Cutting, R.
Perkins, Mr. Wohlers, Coach.
Third Row—B. Phillips, A. Tid-
well. Fourth Row—C. O'Donnell, B. Ford.*

CROSS COUNTRY

CROSS country came of age this year as Coach Wohlers' fifteen aspirants won two of four scheduled dual meets. Opening against Pelham, the Harriers were nipped 22-23, despite the second place finish of Captain Charles Ellis. Ellis also finished second against Hackley and Ossining as his team beat Hackley but lost to Ossining. Their record was then evened when Scarsdale toppled the Yonkers two-milers, 21-34. Clark O'Donnell, Benson Ford, and Bert Tidwell ran well for the squad. Entering the New York State Cross Country Championship of District Number One for the first time, Scarsdale met success as Ellis and Bob Cutting finished fifth and eleventh respectively. Next year the return of varsity lettermen Charles Keller and Bruce Phillips will brighten the outlook.

TRACK AND FIELD

FIVE lettermen returned this spring to form a nucleus for Coach Wohlers' perennially formidable track squad. Jack Harrison and Jim Straus ran the sprints with Bill Williams aiding Harrison in the hurdles. Bill Durland, Cappy Breese, and Michael Chianelli excelled in the middle distance races. Charles Ellis and Clark O'Donnell ran the mile successfully. In the field department Bill MacDowell, Don Whyte and Durland performed, with Harvey Gerry and Whyte doing the high jump. Bill MacDowell also threw the discus, and Bob Jackson completed the picture in the pole vault. New material appeared with Charles Kahle, Larry Mark, and Mills Ripley. Engaging the usual Westchester competition, Scarsdale completed its campaign in the annual County meet in White Plains.

TRACK AND FIELD

*Standing—Mr. Steele, Coach; C. Ellis, W. Durland, J. Hinsey, H. Gerry, W. Winship, W. MacDowell, Mr. Wohlers, Coach.

WRESTLING

BOASTING victories over Poly Prep, Trinity, and Hackley twice, Scarsdale's representatives of the grunt and groan trade presented their man in mufti, David Buchanan, with an unblemished record for the second year in a row. Bob Jackson in the unlimited class, Bob Whiteside at 175 pounds, Harv Kaplan at 154, Harold Levy at 120, and Jim Ross at 112 recorded four victories apiece. Frank Exman and Bill MacDowell won two victories each and were also undefeated. Dick Swyers, Bill Williams, and Jack Harrison all compiled even records with two wins and two losses. The climax of the season occurred with a trip to Brooklyn netting a smashing 24-15 victory over the classy and ever-dangerous matmen of Poly Prep.

BASEBALL

BECAUSE of the lateness of Easter vacation, the schedule of the 1949 baseball season suffered some alterations, but this had no adverse effect on the good material at Clinton Leonard's disposal.

The mound staff of Dave Swertfager, B. Dehlendorf, Bruce White, Dick Reeves, and Mike Dalton was well received by Grogan and Larkin.

Around the horn Ruel and Stewie Smith were at first, Henry Shuldener at second, Bob Agee at short, and Dick Maslow at third.

The outfield consisted mainly of Dalton, Weissinger, Mosher, and the elder statesman, Don Triolo. Other members of the pitching staff appeared here, too.

ARCHERY

HANG on to your hats, fellas, those female cupids are at it again, and Scarsdale's skilled archers never (well, hardly ever) miss their targets. It's hard to tell whether the girls spent more time shooting, devouring Good Humors, or keeping an eye on the hard working track team; but under the guidance of Miss Isenberg, the team worked its way into the National Archery Tournament. As usual, Scarsdale made a fine showing in this tournament, Nancy Callaway having an excellent record. A few other sharp shooters were Lynn Andrews and Abby Austin, not to mention the only sophomore, Eve Kraepelien.

“COME on, kids, yell!”

How could any school lack spirit, backed by such peppy cheerleaders as Scarsdale had this year?

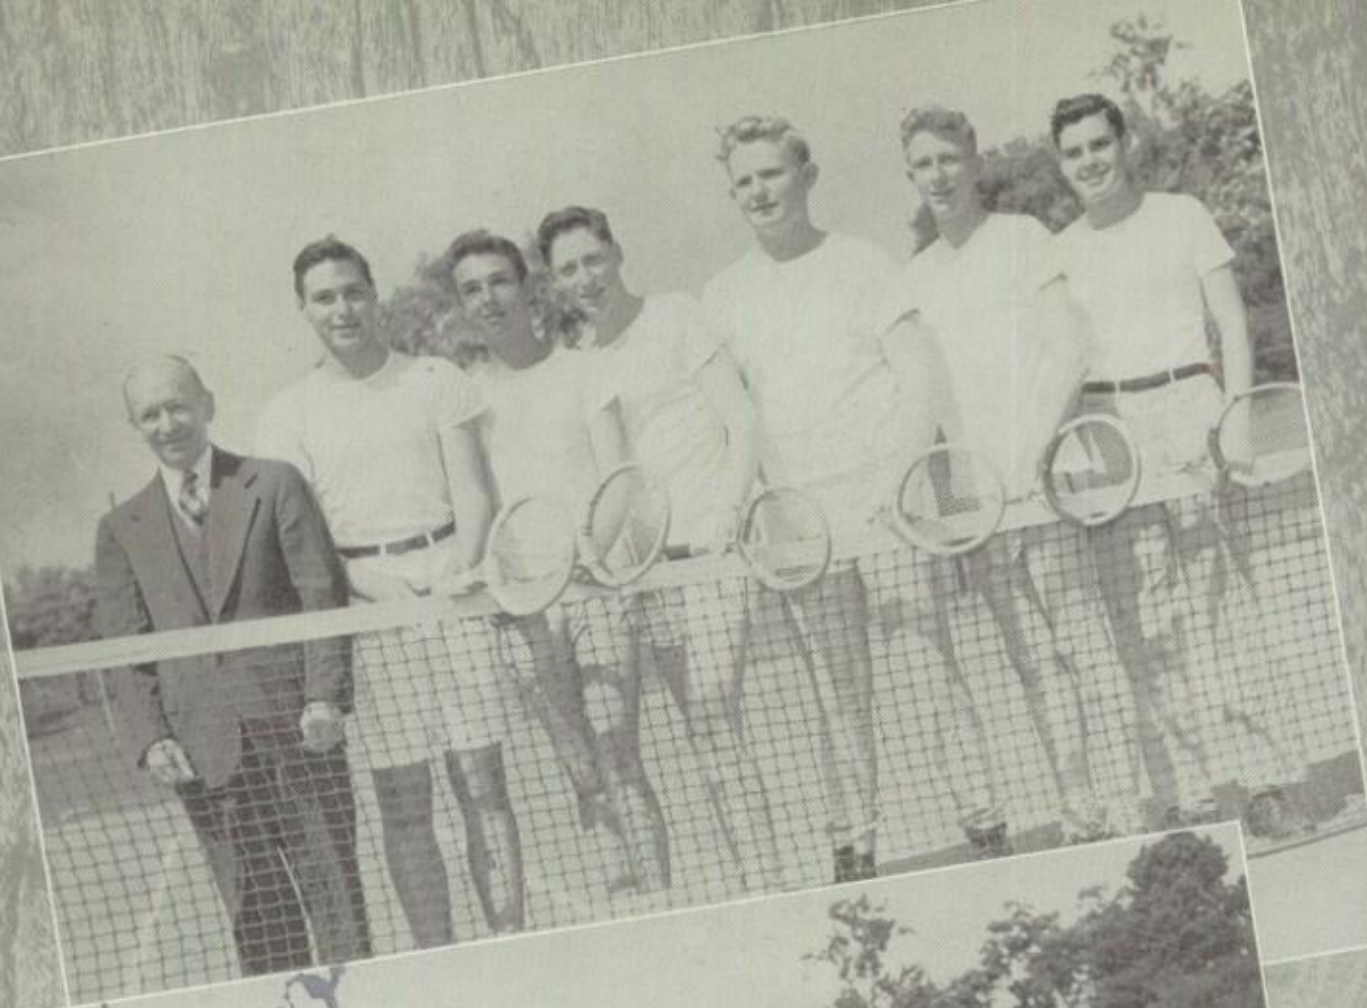

The gals carried on very well without the aid of a faculty advisor. The squad found a little variety when they rode to the away games on the basketball team bus—with Mr. Nelson as their chaperone.

Led by veteran co-captains, Carol Claflin and Diana Kay, and manager, Sue Hosking, the girls were on the job rain or shine. With no reward except to hear the students' voices booming, the squad endured long practices and sore muscles. Now let's give them a well-earned cheer! Yeah, cheerleaders!

CHEERLEADERS

BOYS' TENNIS

A. Wolf, D. Lavin, T. Petschek,
J. Hinsey, B. Vogel, D. Flint.

Dear Ellen—

would have been

GIRLS' TENNIS

Coach; J. Koerner, L. Barnes,
A. Monroe, S. Barnes, J. Mack.

BOYS' TENNIS

THE 1949 tennis team, paced by such stars as Dan Flint, Bruce Vogel, and Alex Wolf, came up to all the expectations of their mentor. Other leaders included Joe Hinsey, Tom Petschek, Dave Lavin, and Toby Ritter. In the doubles, Scarsdale was very strong with the Hinsey-Wolf and Vogel-Flint combinations. Petschek, Lavin, and Ritter also saw action in the doubles. Vogel, Flint and Wolf more than held up their end in the singles matches. In spite of the loss of Tom Lewyn, seeded second in the Junior Lawn Tennis Association, this year's crop of racqueteers were very successful, perhaps because of Mr. Pratt's fine support and the transportation supplied by his '49 Mercury.

GIRLS' TENNIS

IN spring a young girl's fancy lightly turns to—a tennis court. Thanks to the much needed resurfacing of the courts, the team composed of energetic femmes looked better than ever this year. Spectators could see the chalk fly as Joan Mack, Lucie Bel Barnes, Alice Monroe, Joan Koerner, and other chased the balls around. Everyone was sorry to lose Sally Barnes this year because of a foot injury, but the team was lucky enough to have her as student coach. Unfortunately crowds never gather around the courts during a girls' match. Nevertheless, with endless spirit, the team continues to make Scarsdale proud of it.

"Move over, Alice Marble; you've got competition."

Thirty-Five Years of Shipping Progress

Experience is the best teacher . . . in shipping as in any other field of human endeavor. Through thirty-five years of steady progress, Moore-McCormack Lines have mastered the specialized skills which assure efficient operation . . . Today, our big, fast, modern ships—both cargo and passenger—carry the American flag on trade routes of key importance: between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of the United States, and in South America, Scandinavia and continental Europe.

Within the last year, Mooremack ships set four new speed records in reaching foreign ports, impressive evidence not only of the efficiency of our vessels, but also of the ability of ship's personnel and of the management directing operations. The shipper who entrusts his cargo to Mooremack . . . the passenger who voyages abroad in Mooremack comfort . . . both benefit by all that this organization has learned in thirty-five years of growth.

MOORE-McCORMACK
 5 Broadway Lines New York 4, N. Y.

From Pearl Harbor to V-J Day, Moore-McCormack Lines operated more than 150 ships, lost 11 vessels, transported 754,239 troops and carried 34,410,111 tons of war cargo. To discharge such responsibilities in time of crisis, America's Merchant Marine must be kept strong in peace—as in war.

REFLECTIONS

- of you and your classmates upon your school life achieve immortality in a carefully planned and executed yearbook.

- From the arid desert of Arizona, and the sultry green island of Puerto Rico, to the snow-blanketed slopes of Northern New England, we have traveled, happy and proud to have been an instrument in the translating into print, the humor pathos, excitement, and sentiment found in the campus life of over seventy-five colleges and preparatory schools.

- As former members of yearbook staffs in our school days, we bring into our professional duties a real understanding of the many problems confronting each yearbook editor.
